A modern kitchen sink setup featuring a sleek, chrome SCHOCK CRISTALITE faucet. The faucet has a curved spout and a single-lever handle. To the left of the faucet, a light-colored wooden cutting board holds two heads of radicchio. The sink itself is a dark, rectangular basin with a stainless steel drain. The countertop is a dark, speckled material. In the background, a window with white frames is visible. To the left of the sink, there are several potted plants, including one with yellow flowers and another with green leaves. To the right of the sink, there are more potted plants, including a small green plant in a black pot and a larger plant in a red pot. The overall scene is bright and clean, with natural light coming from the window.
